

Australian Honey Products wins “best honey on the world” and Tasmanian Small Business Exporter of the year.

Oct 2015

At the recent World Beekeeping Awards held in Korea, Australian Honey Products won the overall trophy for “Best Honey in the World” with our Leatherwood honey against different honey from around the globe.

“We are extremely excited and proud of our achievement and this shows what we in Tasmania have always known, Tasmanian Leatherwood honey is the best” said Lindsay Bourke owner and Master Beekeeper.

As well as the trophy Australian Honey Products also won gold medals for their other products, with the Taverners honey meads being the best in the show as well as the Taverners honey Ales.

Lindsay with his trophy for “Best Honey In The World” .

Lindsay and family accepting Tasmanian Export Award.

Reflecting the International capability of the small Tasmanian Company, Australian Honey Products was just announced as the Tasmanian Small Business Exporter of the year. Showing that not only do they produce the best honey in the world they also share the honey across the world.